PARK FOREST, September 18, 2018

Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra (IPO) celebrates 41 years of bringing beautiful music to the Southland as it opens the 2018-19 season with the "American Originals" program on Saturday, October 20, 2017, at 5:30PM at Ozinga Chapel in Palos Heights. Maestro Stilian Kirov leads the orchestra for his second season with IPO. After the concert, the opening night festivities will continue with the Act II Opening Night Post-Concert Celebration Dinner at Midlothian Country Club.

"It's a great new beginning for the IPO and I am thrilled for us to continue building excitement and bringing inspiration to our audiences" says Kirov

"It is a program that includes some of our very favorite American tunes. We also welcome a brilliant young violinist - Simone Porter who is one of the top rising stars in the musical field today. From American in Paris, to the movie themes in Korngold's Violin Concerto, and the first premiere of our Composer-in-Residence Ben Ash this promises to be a fantastic beginning of the 18-19 season!"

IPO begins its 41st season celebrating with a red, white, and new opening night of American Originals program as part of the Southland Arts, Municipalities and Business Alliance's (SAMBA) Made in America Festival. The concert is IPO's nod to American classic Broadway and film scores, which is something people of all ages will enjoy.

Bernstein's Candide Overture and Gershwin's American in Paris pair with Korngold's Violin Concerto draws on movie themes from 1930s-era films scored by the composer. American violin prodigy, Simone Porter, who has debuted with the New York Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Los Angeles Philharmonic over the past few years, will bring her passionate interpretation of the Concerto. Rounding out opening night will be the World Premiere of IPO's first Composer-in-Residence work, written by Ben Ash, winner of the 2018 inaugural composer competition, Classical Evolve. Opening night's community partners are Tall Grass Arts Association and SAMBA.

The night will continue to Midlothian Country Club for Act II Opening Night Post Concert Celebration Dinner beginning at 7:30pm. Tickets are sold for $100. We welcome everyone to join us in the celebrating the beginning of another successful season of IPO.

Concert single tickets start at $27 in advance. Student tickets are $10, and group tickets are available with a minimum of seven patrons. Ticketing fees may apply. Great new subscriber rates of up to 40% off are still available for 3, 4, 5 or all 6 concert packages.
